```
mohit@LAPTOP-EEIS6M66: ~
mohit@LAPTOP-EEIS6M66:~$ nano all_25_commands.sh mohit@LAPTOP-EEIS6M66:~$ chmod +x all_25_commands.sh mohit@LAPTOP-EEIS6M66:~$ ./all_25_commands.sh
========= OS BASIC COMMANDS PRACTICAL =========

1. Display user manual of ls
LS(1)                                User Commands                                LS(1)

NAME
       ls - list directory contents

2. Change current working directory
/home/mohit/os_lab_demo

3. List contents of directory

4. Read / Modify / Concatenate text files
Hello OS Lab

5. Create a new directory

6. Display current working directory
/home/mohit/os_lab_demo

7. Write arguments to standard output
Hello World

8. Remove a file

9. Delete a directory

10. Copy a file

11. Switch to root user (command only)
```

```
mohit@LAPTOP-EEIS6M66: ~

12. Move a file

13. Search for string in file
Hello OS Lab

14. Print first 5 lines of file
Hello OS Lab

15. Print last 5 lines of file
Hello OS Lab

16. Remove read permission from owner

17. Change specific permissions chmod: invalid mode: ‘u+r,w-x,g+w’
Try 'chmod --help' for more information.

18. Add write permission to owner, none to others

19. Assign permissions to users

20. Assign R/W/X to others

21. Remove all permissions from all users

22. Remove read permission using absolute mode

23. Set R/W for owner, none for group/other

24. Add execute for owner, read for group/others

25. Add execute permission to all users

========= PRACTICAL COMPLETED =========
mohit@LAPTOP-EEIS6M66:~$
```